

If you're trying to take away traffic and weather from XM, that is crazy! XM is nothing more than an advancement in radio from FM to digital.

Going through with something like this would be like going back in time and telling FM stations they could not broadcast weather or traffic because AM radio came out first.

Spend your time and energies worrying about things that matter, like protecting our freedoms and well being!